Distinguished Las Vegas Employment Attorney Deanna Forbush Joins Morris Polich & Purdy LLP as Partner

Los Angeles, CA --- Morris Polich & Purdy LLP (MPP), a California and Nevada law firm, is pleased to announce that prominent employment law attorney Deanna Forbush joined the firm's Las Vegas office as Partner on March 21, 2015.

Prior to joining MPP, Deanna Forbush worked with such notable firms as Fox Rothschild, Grotta, Glassman & Hoffman, and Markowitz and Richmond. She also served as Associate General Counsel at the Venetian Casino Resort, as well as the Frontier Hotel & Casino and Gambling Hall. Her experience spans the areas of employment, business litigation, traditional labor law and corporate immigration matters where she has represented employers and international businesses around the world.

She joins an established and highly skilled employment law team led by MPP partner Beth Kahn and includes sixteen attorneys based in San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego and Las Vegas.

Deanna Forbush also provides preventative counseling to employers and conducts employee training on a national scale regarding union awareness and avoidance, employment discrimination, sexual harassment and immigration matters, including compliance.

"We are extremely fortunate and excited to have Deanna join the employment team here at MPP," said Don Ridge, MPP managing partner. "The expansion of the Las Vegas office is part of MPP's continuing business strategy to further support our clients by recruiting talented and experienced attorneys who add depth to the firm's practice."
