Five Attorneys Join Morris Polich & Purdy LLP's New San Francisco Office

Los Angeles, CA --- Morris Polich & Purdy LLP is pleased to announce that, as part of an initiative to expand their practice, the firm welcomes five new real estate and commercial litigation attorneys who have joined MPP's newest office in San Francisco. Located in the Embarcadero Center, this office enables MPP to provide clients in Northern California the high level of service for which they are well-known in Southern California and Nevada.

Jeffrey Belote, Conrad Breece, Elizabeth England, Timothy Flaherty and Nancy Perham bring a wealth of experience to MPP's Real Estate and Commercial Litigation practice. The addition of these attorneys dramatically increases MPP's ability to handle real estate litigation and transactional work, and strengthens the bridge between their existing Real Estate, Environmental and Construction law practices.

"We are very excited to welcome this distinguished team to our firm," says Managing Partner Don Ridge. "Their vast and diverse set of experience and skills contribute to MPP's already noteworthy dedication to client service; our clients will reap the benefits of their expert advice and counsel."
